The LVMH spirit

LVMH has successfully preserved a FAMILY SPIRIT that places priority on a LONG-TERM VISION.

The Group's vocation is to ensure the DEVELOPMENT of each of its Houses while respecting their IDENTITIES and their autonomy, providing the RESOURCES needed to create, produce and market their products and services through carefully selected channels.

These creations make our Houses
AMBASSADORS OF A DISTINCTIVELY
REFINED « ART DE VIVRE ».

The THREE FUNDAMENTAL VALUES articulated by Bernard Arnault are shared by every member of LVMH.

Those three imperatives constitute the pillars of our PERFORMANCE and LONG-TERM SUCCESS.

BE CREATIVE & innovative

Creativity and innovation are part of our DNA. Over the years, they have ensured our Houses' success and established their legitimacy. This combination of creativity and innovation is the foundation of our Houses and stands at the heart of the delicate balance required to continually renew our offer while resolutely looking to the future, always respecting our unique heritage.

DELIVER excellence

At LVMH, we never compromise on quality. Because we embody the world of craftsmanship in its most noble and accomplished form, we pay meticulous attention to detail and to perfection. From products to service, we cultivate our difference through this constant quest for excellence.

CULTIVATE an entrepreneurial spirit

LVMH has an agile and decentralized organization that encourages efficiency and responsiveness. It stimulates individual initiative by entrusting each person with significant responsibilities. Our entrepreneurial spirit encourages both risk-taking and perseverance. It requires pragmatic thinking and an ability to motivate teams, leading them to achieve ambitious objectives.

Biography of Bernard Arnault

Bernard Arnault is Chairman and CEO of LVMH. Born to an industrial family in Roubaix, France on March 5, 1949, Mr. Arnault attended the Roubaix lycée and the Faidherbe lycée in Lille. He then went on to study at the Ecole Polytechnique, graduating in 1971.

He began his professional career that year as an engineer with the Ferret-Savinel construction company and successively was promoted to various executive management positions before becoming Chairman in 1978.

Mr. Arnault remained there until 1984, when he undertook the reorganization of the Financière Agache holding company. He returned the group to profitability as he embarked upon a strategy of developing the world's leading luxury products company. In the process, he reinvigorated Christian Dior as the cornerstone of the new organization.

In 1989, Mr. Arnault became the majority shareholder of LVMH Moët Hennessy – Louis Vuitton, creating the world's leading luxury products group. Mr. Arnault has been Chairman and CEO of the company since that date. Mr. Arnault is also President of the Board of Directors of Groupe Arnault S.A. (his family holding company).

Mr. Arnault is married and has five children. He has been awarded the honory titles of Grand Officer of the Legion of Honour and Commander of the Order of Arts and Letters.
